

Dear parents and carers,

Dressing up: On World Book Day this year we are celebrating non-fiction! Please could the children come to school on this day dressed up as someone or something they would like to read a non-fiction book about. They can come dressed up as whatever they choose, for example an astronaut, dinosaur, or an athlete. We are linking it to the National Year of Reading's motto- GO ALL IN! We are encouraging our pupils to 'go all in' and find out as much as they can about one of their interests by reading.

During the day we are taking turns walking to New Mills Library, so if your child has a library card please send them with it. Each student will come home with their £1 voucher for a World Book Day book.

Competition: Our challenge for World Book Day is for children to dress up or decorate a potato, based on a book character. Bring it in on World Book Day to display in the hall and enter.

Happy reading everyone! We are really looking forward to all the booky fun and to encouraging our wonderful pupils to enjoy reading. Please get in touch if you have any questions or ideas.
